IMPORTANT FROM THE POTOMAC. A Raid into Virginia-Destruction of Rebel Stores-Capture of 25 Prisoners, 60 Horses, 20 Mules, 65 Head of Cattle and 100|Sheep

The Baltimore American of this morning has an interesting account of a raid in Westmoreland, Northumberland and Richmond counties, Virginia, by a force of 300 Infantry and 130 C .valry, under command of Brigadier General

The expedition embarked at Point Lookout on the morning of the 12th instant, and effected a landing at Kinsale, Virginia, on the Yeomico river, at an early hour, and thirty of the cavalry were detached to accompany the infantry-The remainder of the cavalry, numbering about one hundred proceeded direct to Warshaw Court House, Richmond county, where they 1 und a large quantity of Rebel Government stores, consisting of pork and bacon, which they took possession of and destroyed. A quantity of grain was also destroyed, and a Rebel Major and several other prisoners, who were in command of the post, were taken prisoners, the appearance of our troops being so sudden and unexpected that they were unable to make their escape.

After destroying all the Government property at Warshaw they proceeded direct to the Union wharf on the Rappahanock river and communicated with the gunboats stationed there. From thence they went down the river, crossed Farnham's Creek, where they met a small party of Rebel cavalry, with whom some slight skirmishing took place, but they were driven off. At 4 a.m. on the morning of the 1 ish they encamped on the lower side of Farnham's Creek, having ravelled about sixty two miles in the space of little over twelve hours. Here they resed five hours and at 9 a. m., s'art d for Little Waltham, where they had some more skirmishing with a small force of rebel cavalry, whom they routed, and destroyed s veral hundred bushels of grain and some versibles in the possession of the military authorities.

From Little Waltham the command proceed. d to I a leaster Court House, where the main body naited, and Lieutenant Dickinson, of the 5th Cavalry, was sent to K Imarnock, a place about ten miles distant, whilst another detachment was sent out to destroy an extensive tannery, where they gave to the torch a large stock of leather, hides, machinery, oil, &c. Lieutenant Dickinson encountered a party of rebel cavalry, with whom he skirmished for some time, severely wounding and capturing a private of the 9th Virginia Cavalry. He reinrued the same morning.

On the even ng of the 13th they bivouscked, but were aroused about 10 o'clock by distant firing and proceeded to the Wicomico river and communicated with the fleet.

On the morning of the 14th the expedition moved up the Wicomico river to Rubetts, where a wharf sixty-six feet long was built, and at half-past ten o'clock the same night the whole command re-embarked, taking with them 25 prisorers, 60 horses, 20 mules, 25 head of cattle. and 166 sheep. They lost one man killed, and returned to Point Lookout on the morning of the 15th, all highly delighted with their three days' sojourn in Dixie. The infantry rendered efficient service in constructing the wharf for the ir re-embarkation, and the wholeexpedition was carried out according to the original plans of General Marston without any misunderstandings.

Commodore F. A. Parker, of the Potomac Flotilla, and Lieutenant Provo, commanding the Anacostia, now commanding the flotilla in the vicinity of Point Lookout, heartily co-operated with General Marston, and rendered most valuable aid in effecting the embarcation of the Assault HEADQUARTERS ARMY OF THE POTOMAC, Jan. 17 .- On the evening of Thur day the 14th instant, a squad of the 1st Rhode Island cayalry, on picket, near Three-mile Station, were attacked by a body of rebel cavalry, estimated at 200. The pickets were forced to fall back with the loss of one captured and one wounded The assailing force then approached the reserve post, and on being halted by the officer in command, represented themselves as belonging to the 3d Pennsylvania cavalry, on their way to Bealton Station.

Finding that their story was discredited, they poured a volley into our men, and immediately retired into the woods behind to reload, receiving as they fell back the fire of our picket reserve. Our men were somewhat sheltered by breastworks, which were repeatedly and desrerately charged by the enemy, who was in every instance repulsed. The fight continued half an hour, when the rebel force retreated. Twelve wounded rebels were found, on Friday morning, at a house half a mile from the scene of the engagement, and three were found dead on the field. Our loss was but two wounded. Sergeant Phillips, of troop D, was shot through the the breas', and his wound is believed to be mortal. The wounded rebels state that the rebels attacked under the impressicn that a Government paymaster was present with the Rhode Island cavalry, for the purpose of paying off the men on the 15th instant .- N. XXXVIIITH CONGRESS .- FIRST SESSION. SENATE - After our report closed yesterday - Joint resolutions of thanks to Major Generals Hooker, Meade and Howard, and the officers and men under their commands of the Army of the Potomac, were adopted. Mr. Morgan, reported a joint resolution of thanks to Commodore Cornelius Vanderbilt for his munificent gift to the Government of the steamship Vanderbilt. Passed.

The Senate then went into executive session, and shortly afterwards adjourned. House.-After our report closed-Mr. Harding offered the following: Resolved, That the maintenance inviolate of the rights of the States, and especially the rights of each State to order and control its doestic institutions according to its own judgment exclusively, is essential to that balance of power on which the perfection and endurance of our political fabric depends. Referred to the Select Committee on the Rebellious A resolution was adopted instructing the Committee on Military Affairs to inquire into the propriety of reporting a bill retiring Brigadier General Robert Anderson, with full pay and allowances.

Mr. Smith offered the following, which was passed by a vote of 112 yeas to 16 nays:-Whereas, a most desperate, wicked, and bloor y rebellion exists within the jurisdiction of the United States, and the safety and security of personal and national liberty depend upon its absolute and utter extinction; therefore Resolved, That it is the political, civil, moral and sacred duty of the people to meet it, fight it, crush it, and forever destroy it, thereby establishing perfect and unalterable liberty. Mr. Edgerton offered a preamble setting forth that Anna E. Dickinson was granted the use of this hall to deliver a public address entitled Words for the hour," on Saturday night last: and whereas she appeared on the platform, supported on the right by the Vice President, and on the left by the Speaker of the House, who thus by their personal support, gave, or appeared to give, a governmental authority to the address, which was a politic I rhapsody and a partisan support to the present Administration, and denunciatory of its opponents, and was evidently designed to influence great measures of legislation before this House; there-Resolved, That we disapprove of such a use of this Hall, for political purposes, and regard it as disrespectful to the minority of this House.

The Speaker decided it was not before the House according to the rules. Mr. Holman offered a presmble setting forth the fact of numerous officers, inc'uding Major and Brigadier Generals, being relieved from active service on full pay, and concluding with a resolution that the Committee on Military Affairs take the subject into consideration. The House then adjourned

FROM DIXIB. From Richmond papers of the 15th inst. we learn that much perturbation exists there in relation to movements that the rebels think Gen.

Butler has in view in North Carolina upon the rebel railroad communications. They are also apprehensive of a raid upon Savannah; have records of "disasters on the North Carolina coast" in the shape of destruction of blockade runners; and also of a successful "Federal raid" in Westmoreland county, Virginia. Piteous appeals are made in behalf of "the Charleston sufferers," including some "ten thousand women and children" who are on the verge of starvation. "These women," it is stated in the rebel report, "are engaged in the Arsenal, Ordnance and Quartermaster's Departments, and other avocations, all trying to do what they can to aid our cause, and, at the same time, earn a support for tuemselves; but the bigh price and great scarcity of provisions puts it out of their power to do so.'

CONGRESSIONAL. XXXVIIITE CONGRESS .- FIRST SESSION.

TUESDAY, January 19. SENATE.-Mr. Johnson presented the credentials of Hon. T. Holliday Hicks, elected Senator from Maryland to fill the unexpired term of the late Hon. James Altred Pearce. Mr. hicks qualified by subscribing the constitutional oath as well as oath of loyalty. [He had been previously holding the seat by appointment of the Governor.]

Mr. Sumner, from the Committee on Foreign Relations, to whom was referred the President's messas e relative to Peruvian claims under the e nvention between Peru and the United States on the 12 h July, 1863, reported a bill for their satisfaction. Mr. Grimes, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported favorably on the bill to provide for the instruction of youth in the District outside the limits of the cities of Washington and Georgetown. Also, the bill for the admission of patients in the Hospital for the Insane in this District-the latter with amendment. [It permits the Secretary of the Interior to admit transient insane persons to the hospital during the present rebellion. I It was taken up and passed

Mr. Wilkinson introduced a bill to grant bounty to soldiers enlisted prior to May 3 1851. The bill was referred to the Judiciary Committee. Mr. Johnson, from Committee on Naval Affairs, reported the joint resolution tendering the thanks of Congress to Admiral Dupont, for eminent services. Mr. Morgan introduced a bill to facilitate proceedings in admiralty and other judicial proceedings in the courts of New York. Reterred to Judiciary Committee. The resolution for establishing a new rule of the Senate, requiring members to take the oath of loyalty of the act of July 2, 1862, was taken ur, and Mr. Bayard proceeded to address the Senate at length in opposition to its adoption. House.-The House resumed the consideration of the joint resolution amendatory of the confiscation act. Mr. Bliss, of Ohio, expressed his views on the subject of confiscation, arguing it appeared clearly that the power of the Constitution to declare the punishment of treason, although it authorized legislation against the life of the guilty, and that the forfeiture of estate should be during the life of the offender, did not authorize the continuance of the forfeiture beyond

Mr. Boutwell entered into an argument to show that the Constitution gave full and complete power for the punishment of treason, but prohibiting absolutely that any attainder shall the work corruption of blood. The House went into committee on the bill amendatory of the internal revenue law.

TELEGRAPHIC NEWS. INAUGURATION OF GOV. CURTIN.

THE GOVERNOR'S SPEECH ON THE OCCASION. HARRISBURG, Jan. 19.—The inaugural ceremonies of Gov. Curtin took place to-day. In his speech, the Governor says:

"I need hardly renew my pledge, that, during the term of office on which I am about to enter, I will give my whole moral and official honor to the prosecution of this war, and in aiding the National Government in every effort to secure an early and complete success over our malignant foes. For the preservation of our national life, all things shall be subordinate. It is the first, highest, and noblest duty of a citizen.

It is the highest protection in person, property and all civil and religious privileges, and for its perpetuity in form and power he owes all his efforts, his influences, his means and his life, to compromise with treason would be but to give it renewed existence and enable it to again plunge us into another causeless war.

In the destruction of the Military power of the Rebellion is the only hope of peace, for while armed Rebels march over the soil of any State no real freedom can prevail, and no Government authority consistent with the genius of our free institutions can properly operate.

The people of every State are entitled, under the constitution to the protection of the Gov. ernment, and to give that protection fully and fairly the Rebellion must be disarmed and trodden in the dust. By these means, and by these alone, can we have an enduring Union, prosperity and peace.

As in the past, I will in the future, in faith. ful obedience to the oath I have taken spare no means, withhold no power, which can strengthen the Government in this conflict. To the measures of citizens chosen to administer the National Government and adopted to promote every great cause I will give my cordial approved and earnest co-operation. It is the cause of constitutional liberty and law.

I cannot close this address without an earnest prayer to the Most High that he will proect and guard our beloved country, guiding with divine power and wisdom our Government, State and National, and I appeal to my fellow citizens, here and elsewhere, in our embarrassment, to lay aside all partizan feelings, and unite in a hearty and earnest effort to support the common cause which involves the welfare of us all.

Gentlemen of the Senate and House of Representatives: I pray you, in God's name, let us in this era in the history of the world, set an example of unity and concord in the support of all measures for the preservation of this great republic.

MOVEMENTS OF THE FRENCH TROOPS THERE. A BATTLE BETWEEN THE PRENCH AND MEXICANS IMMINENT. AN AMERICAN CONSUL ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 18 .- A private letter from Maryville, Mexico, dated the 11th inst., on French authority, gives the following items from the interior:

"The French are 14,000 strong in Gaudalajara, under General Bazaine, and another column 4,000 strong, under Drowey, were approaching the Mexican army, near Zapoltan, only twenty leagues from Columbia. The Mexicans intended to oppose them with only seven thousand men under Urago and Jopia.' The letter states that the American Consul, Baker, at Maryville, killed an American sailor who had deserted from the steamer Saginaw. because the latter had refused to obey the Consul's orders to take his place in the stocks prepared for his confinement As the sailor was unarmed the killing is regarded as wholly unwarrantable. Baker has been arrested and charged with murder in the first degree and will probably be sent to San Francisco for trial by the American Courts. His Exequatur will be withdrawn. A NOTORIOUS RANCHE DESTROYED BY FIRE.-On Saturday evening, about eight o'clock, as Officers Hurley and Clements were passing the notorious "ranche" of Mrs. Shay, on Twentieth street, one door north of K, they heard a riot going on within between a number of soldiers, belonging to the invalid corps, who had congregated there. The officers went in and dispersed the soldiers, and took the proprietress to the Station-house, where she was locked up for the night. At eleven p. m. the "ranche" was discovered to be on fire, and was totally consumed; the fire, no doubt, being the work of an incendiary. Mrs. Shay has figured very frequently in the police reports, and the house has been a great nuisance to the residents of the First Ward, and its detruction is but little regretted.
